Piano-Fortes.

1880.

THE McPHAIL PIANOS

Are unsurpassed by any other Pianos in the world; for style, tone, finish and durability, they stand unrivalled, to the truth of which McPHAIL & Co. have the testimony of more than Fifty Thousand of the best citizens of the United States and Europe, including most of the leading musicians in the country.

Thirty Years of close attention and study, supplemented by the aid of science and the skill of the best mechanics, enable McPHAIL & Co. to present to the public a Piano as perfect as the ingenuity of man can produce.

From Rev. Henry M. Dexter, Editor of "Congregationalist," Boston.

I have for several months had in constant household use a very superior Piano from the warehouse of A. M. McPHAIL & Co. In that time it has given to myself and members of my family the greatest satisfaction in every respect, and has been repeatedly pronounced by musical friends of high culture, whose dictum would be with me the end of all strife, to be a thoroughly first-class instrument. Such I have no hesitation in considering it to be.

HENRY M. DEXTER.

From Rev. Dr. A. P. Peabody, Harvard University.

Messrs. A. M. McPHAIL & Co., — The Piano which I bought of you gives entire and perfect satisfaction, and is believed to be an unsurpassed instrument of its kind. Many performers — some of these, persons of superior skill — have tried it, and all, without exception, have spoken of it in terms of unqualified praise. I shall be glad for you to use my name or to make reference to me in any way in which it can be of service to you.

I am very truly, A. P. PEABODY.

From Rev. Elias Nason, Exeter, N. H.

Messrs. A. M. McPHAIL & Co., — I am happy to inform you that the Piano-Forte which we recently bought of you for the use of our vestry meets our expectations admirably. The tone is sweet, even, full and clear, blending beautifully with the voices of the people, and enriching sweetly, but not ostentatiously, the harmony of the song. Our people are universally pleased with the instrument. Respectfully and truly yours, ELIAS NASON.

THE HOWARD UNIVERSITY,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

OBJECT.

This institution secures the advantages of education to the colored race, but is open to all students, irrespective of race or sex. It can accommodate 500 students, at a very cheap rate of expense.

DEPARTMENTS.

It has an Academic Department, embracing (a) The Model School Course of three years in the elementary English branches (students completing this course are prepared to begin either of the three following); (b) The Normal Course of three years, adapted to those who have the work of teaching in view; (c) The Literary Course of four years, designed to furnish a good practical education for those who are unable to take the full college curriculum; (d) The Classical Preparatory Course of three years; and (e) The Classical College Course of four years.

It has also three Professional Departments, — Law, Medicine, and Theology. The two latter are especially flourishing. The Medical Department is under the charge of an able faculty, is the cheapest medical school in the land, and has access to a large national hospital on its grounds. The majority of its students are white. The Theological Course is adapted to the peculiar wants and future work of the students, and gives a regular or a special course. Its faculty and students represent several denominations, but it is supported by the American Missionary Association and by the Presbytery of Washington.

EXPENSES.

Tuition, $12.00 per year for the Academic course. Room rent the same. No charge to theological students for tuition or room-rent. Rooms are furnished, but students provide their own bedding (except mattress), towels, crockery, fuel and light. Board, $10.00 per month (cheap table $6.00). Washing, $2.00 per month. Law Department, $40.00 per year; Medical, $10.00 initiation fee, $30.00 graduation fee, and no tuition fee.

NECESSITIES.

Howard University appeals to the Christian public of all denominations for pecuniary aid. It has grounds and buildings which cost over $500,000, which are free of debt, but it has no permanent endowments for its professorships, and no endowed scholarships for indigent students. Situated at the national capital, where its work is conspicuous, it has the noblest opportunity to reach all parts of the land with its elevating influence. Appeal is made, for generous contributions, to churches, Sunday schools, ladies' societies, and benevolent individuals.

Address

Rev. WM. W. PATTON, D. D., President.

OBERLIN COLLEGE

OBERLIN, OHIO.

DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY. — Instruction is given by the President, five Professors, and eminent special lecturers appointed from year to year. Students have commodious, furnished rooms in the new and attractive building, COUNCIL HALL, which is devoted exclusively to the uses of this Department. They have free access to all the classes, libraries, and cabinets of the other Departments. Fifteen weeks during the summer can be spent in Home Missionary or other labor, with compensation, without interference with studies. The demand for such labor is greater than the supply During the last half of the course the students have frequent opportunities to supply the neighboring churches. Students who need pecuniary assistance receive the usual aid from the American Education Society and from special funds under the control of the Seminary, enough in all cases to relieve them from embarrassment in pursuing their studies.

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY AND THE ARTS. — Ten Professors give instruction in this Department. The Classical and Scientific Course embraces the studies of our best colleges, so arranged that after the Freshman year the student may, by elective studies, give a classical or scientific character to his course, receiving the degree of A. B. at its close. For entrance, three years of Latin, two of Greek, and one term of Geometry are necessary. The Literary Course is like the above, with the exception that no Greek and less Latin is required.

DEPARTMENT OF PREPARATORY INSTRUCTION — Comprises a Classical School, which prepares students for the best colleges, and an English School, which offers the advantages of a first-class academy to those who can spend but a little time at school. Instruction is given by the Principal of this Department, six tutors, and about fifteen special teachers.

Expenses in all departments for tuitions, incidentals, and board are very low. Students who do not wish to take a full course can select such studies in any department as they are prepared to pursue to advantage. Both sexes admitted. Location healthful, and religious influences the best. No drinking or billiard saloons in town. Circulars with full information sent free by J. B. T. MARSH, Secretary.

OBERLIN

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

OVER THREE THOUSAND students have received instruction in this Conservatory since it was established. Its faculty consists of five Professors, four of whom were educated in the celebrated schools of Leipzig and Paris, and all of whom give their entire time to this institution.

Instruction is given in class or private lessons, as preferred. The rates of tuition are exceptionally low, fifteen dollars a term paying for tuition in piano-forte, organ, violin, or singing, with other advantages of lectures, concerts, recitals, chorus singing, etc., making a total of from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and thirty hours of instruction in various branches each term. All living expenses in Oberlin are also very low.

The Conservatory is one of the departments of Oberlin College, and under the direct management of its Board of Trustees. By virtue of this connection it offers greater advantages for both musical and literary culture than can be obtained elsewhere. Diplomas are given to all who complete, in a satisfactory manner, its course of study. The terms of study begin in September, December and March, each continuing three months. This Institution is designed to give the most thorough theological culture that can be obtained by a course of three years' study.

To effect this object it is deemed essential that nine full months be devoted to study in each year, and that this period be so divided by suitable vacations as to secure to the studies of the Course those portions of the year which are most favorable to mental vigor.

Accordingly, the first term of the present Seminary Year will end on Thursday, March 4, and be followed by a vacation of three weeks. The second term will commence on Thursday, March 25, and continue till the Anniversary, Thursday, July 1, to be followed by a vacation of nine weeks. The first term of the next Seminary Year will begin on Thursday, Sept. 2.

The Lectures to all the classes begin promptly: it is therefore important that all the students should be present at the beginning of the Seminary Year.

The exercises of the Special Course are discontinued for the present. In addition to the usual supplementary lectures, there is reason to hope that, after the present year, Prof. Phelps will be able to give a special course of lectures. The Library now numbers 37,000 volumes, is constantly increased, and is open daily for examination and drawing of books.

For information respecting Conditions of Membership, Course of Study, Expenses and Beneficiary Aid, see Catalogue, which may be obtained by application to any one of the Faculty.

BANGOR THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY,

AT BANGOR, MAINE.

This institution was chartered by the Legislature of Massachusetts in February, 1814, and was opened for students in October, 1816. It has been in constant service since, and has graduated several hundred pastors, missionaries, teachers, editors and college professors.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Bangor Seminary is open to all denominations of Christians. Candidates for admission must produce testimony of their church-membership, and of their collegiate education. If they have not pursued a college course, they will be examined, and must exhibit mental training and attainments sufficient, in the judgment of the Faculty, to warrant their entering upon a course of theological study.

Those whose age or circumstances forbid the pursuit of the complete course of study, may, at the discretion of the Faculty, be admitted to the studies of the Middle year, and continue their course with the full privileges of the Seminary.

EXPENSES.

Each student is charged two dollars a year for incidental expenses. There is no other charge for tuition, room, furniture, library, or any privilege of the Seminary. The dormitory has been thoroughly repaired and refitted. The rooms are carpeted, and furnished with beds, bedding, chairs, tables, and bookshelves.

The Washburn fund and some other funds were given expressly to aid members of the Seminary. The income of these funds will be distributed to those students whose circumstances require it, and will amount to about half the expense of board.

LIBRARY.

The Seminary has an excellent library, numbering between fifteen and sixteen thousand volumes, specially selected to meet the wants of the students. There is a permanent library fund of eight thousand dollars, with the income of which constant additions are made of the latest and most valuable literature.

The next Seminary year will open on Thursday, September 16, 1880.

For catalogues or for admission address

JOHN S. SEWALL,
Secretary of the Faculty.

Hartford Theological Seminary.

By its organization the Seminary is closely allied to the churches through the Pastoral Union, which annually elects the Trustees.

The plan of instruction is so arranged as to make the study of the Bible the chief feature of the entire course. The patrons, guardians and teachers of the Institution are persuaded that an exegetical and experimental knowledge of the Divine Word should be sought first of all by candidates for the gospel ministry. They also believe that scholarly investigation, controlled and tempered by the spirit of truth, justifies unfaltering adherence to the doctrinal system set forth in the accredited formularies of New England Congregationalism.

It is the aim of each Professor to strengthen, on the part of the students, the habit of personal investigation. Daily drills bring teachers and pupils into such close relations as favor mental activity and appropriate criticism. This confidential intercourse also contributes in many ways to the promotion of personal piety; and it is gratifying to observe how promptly the young men co-operate with their instructors in seeking this fundamental qualification for the sacred office.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission are expected to produce evidence that they are members of some Christian church, and that they have graduated at some college, or have made such literary acquisitions as, in the opinion of the Faculty, are an equivalent preparation for theological studies. They will be examined in reference to their personal piety and their motives in seeking the ministry.

THE SPECIAL OR SHORT COURSE HAS BEEN DISCONTINUED.

Besides lectures on Congregationalism, Moot Councils are held from time to time, for the purpose of making the students familiar with the principles and usages of our Church Polity.

Each class receives instruction in vocal culture.

All the classes meet the Faculty each week for general rhetorical exercises, which include extemporaneous discussions, reading of Scripture, and Hymns, Sermons, Essays and Reviews.

Conferences are held by the Professors for familiar instruction and counsel on subjects of practical importance to the students as Christians and candidates for the sacred office.

EXAMINATION.

At the close of each year all the classes are examined, orally and by written exercises, before the Instructors and a committee appointed by the Pastoral Union and Trustees.

EXPENSES.

No charge is made for tuition, room-rent, or the use of the library. The rooms are supplied with necessary articles of furniture.

Arrangements for board, at a common table, are made by the Trustees. The price of board will not exceed $3.50 per week. Assistance will be furnished towards defraying this expense, in proportion to the necessities of each student, at the discretion of the Faculty. Fuel and lights may be estimated at from $15 to $20 the year for each room.

The appropriation for board is made on the condition that those who receive it attend regularly on the duties of the Seminary throughout the term, unless absent for reasons which the Faculty deem sufficient.

In addition, the American Education Society renders aid to the amount of $100 annually. Students who are licensed have occasional opportunities to preach for compensation.

LICENSED TO PREACH.

By the laws of the Institution, students can receive license to preach at the close of the Middle Year.

LIBRARIES.

Besides the library and reading-room of the Seminary, students have access without charge to the Watkinson Library, one of the best in the country, for consultation. They also have the benefit of the Young Men's Institute Library, including a large assortment of periodicals. These collections of books and periodicals are only a short distance from the Seminary.

CALENDAR.

There is but one term of study in the year, which begins on the second Thursday of September, and closes on the second Thursday of May. Students have opportunity in the long vacation to engage in some form of Christian activity, from which they may derive religious advantages and practical knowledge as well as pecuniary benefit.

Persons desiring to join the Seminary are invited to address Prof. Wm. Thompson, from whom they will receive such additional information as may be needed.

It is earnestly desired that students should be present at the opening of the term.

PACIFIC
THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

REGULAR STUDIES.

First Year. — Greek; Hebrew; Sacred Geography and Antiquities; Origin, History, Authority, Inspiration and Canon of the Bible; Interpretation of the Scriptures; Religions of the World, other than the Christian; Natural Science; Mental and Moral Science.

Second Year. — Biblical Theology; Greek; Hebrew; Exercises in the Exposition of the Scriptures; Systematic Theology; History of Doctrines; Elocution.

Third Year. — Pastoral Theology; Church History; Church Polity; Homiletics; Elocution; Connection of Natural Science with Religion. [An exercise in Hebrew and Greek Exegesis once each week during the third year]

SPECIAL STUDIES.

In special cases, particular and modified courses of instruction will be given to those who cannot remain three years, or who for other reasons cannot take the full course of three years; and these courses of instruction will be adapted to the necessities of each person, it being understood that every one of this class will continue his studies as long as practicable.

PREPARATORY STUDIES.

Young men who have not had the advantage of a collegiate course, and who are, for good reasons, debarred from the prospect of such a course, are enabled to pursue literary and scientific studies, under the direction of the Professors, in the Golden Gate Academy, immediately associated with the Seminary. These preparatory studies will vary with the requirements of each student.

CALENDAR.

The year consists of but one term, and begins with the fourth Thursday in August and ends with the middle of May. There will be a recess from the 20th of December to the 3d of January. Students should begin promptly with the term.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Credible evidence of piety, membership in some Evangelical Church, a collegiate education, or such other literary and scientific attainments as promise a fair degree of usefulness, will entitle all young men to the advantages of this Seminary. The benefits of the institution are accorded alike to students of all denominations of Christians.

EXPENSES.

There will be no charge for tuition, rent of rooms, or use of furniture. The Trustees will, as far as practicable, furnish text-books free to those who are in need, themselves being the judges of the necessity. Those who desire it can board on the premises at the rate of three dollars per week. Fifty cents additional will be charged for washing.

The American Education Society will render aid to the pupils of this Seminary who are needy, who are college graduates, and who take the full course of three years. The amount bestowed will be, when possible, $100 a year to each beneficiary.

An endeavor is continually made to provide for all the wants of every young man who wishes to take the full course of study, and every such person is urged to come to the Seminary whether he has any means of his own or not. It is believed that the necessary expenses of a Theological School are less here than anywhere else in the land.

GANNETT INSTITUTE

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

69 CHESTER SQUARE, BOSTON, MASS.

REV. GEORGE GANNETT, A. M. - - Principal.

LOCATION AND BUILDINGS. — It has one of the most beautiful and desirable locations in the city. The school building was erected expressly for the purposes of the Institute, on the most approved plan of architecture and interior arrangement. The entire establishment is heated with steam, and has all the modern conveniences.

ORGANIZATION. — It was organized twenty-six years since, and its plan from the beginning has been eminently liberal and comprehensive.

DEPARTMENTS. — It has three departments, the Preparatory, Intermediate, and the Senior. Thoroughness in character and methods of instruction characterizes each. The Senior Department embraces a four years' course, which includes the Higher Mathematics, History, Philosophy, the Sciences, Ancient and Modern Languages, Art Studies, and the various Literatures.

A PARTIAL course may be taken, or a selection of studies is permitted.

DIPLOMAS are awarded to those who shall have honorably completed the prescribed course.

TEACHERS AND PROFESSORS. — In every department such teachers and professors only are employed as have been enriched by years of eminent success in their work; and so large is the board of instruction, in proportion to the number of pupils, that an unusual division of labor is secured.

LIBRARIES. — A Library of several thousand volumes and a large and valuable Art Library afford every incentive to reading, study, and research, outside of the text-books.

A HOME is found here for twenty-five young ladies and six of the lady teachers, who constitute a family of refining intimacies and social culture.

A LECTURE COURSE. — From eighty to one hundred lectures, upon History, Literature, Philosophy, Science, and Art are given annually, not to displace, but to supplement the class-room training.

DRAWING AND PAINTING. — In this department, a resident lady teacher, of well-known ability, is occupied during all the school hours. The Studio is filled with casts, natural and artificial objects, as well as flats.

IN FRENCH, GERMAN, AND ITALIAN, native teachers are employed, and a competent American lady superintends the class-room work.

TERMS for Day Pupils, from $80 to $200 per annum.

TERMS for Family Pupils: Board, and Tuition in English, French, Latin, German, Drawing, Penmanship, Physical Culture and Lectures, $500 for the scholastic year. A discount is made to the daughters of clergymen.

The EXTRAS are Music, Painting, and Italian.

The twenty-seventh year commences Sept. 29, 1880.

Relation to the University. — The Divinity School is one of the Departments of Yale College. Its members are members of the University, and as such receive from the Corporation, on completing their three years' course of study, the degree of B. D. (Bachelor of Divinity). They have access to the public collections of the University, such as the Library, the Peabody Museum, and the collection of paintings and statuary in the School of the Fine Arts. They are permitted to attend, free of expense, so far as will not conflict with their professional studies, the lectures and recitations in the College and the Sheffield Scientific School. Those who expect to become foreign missionaries are permitted to attend gratuitously the lectures in the Medical Department.

Course of Study. — The first year is devoted chiefly to the Exegesis of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures; the second year to Systematic Theology and Church History; the third year to Sacred Rhetoric, the History of Christian Doctrine, and Church Polity. Additional lectures on Preaching and other important subjects are delivered before all the classes by eminent ministers and scholars in this country and Europe. There are also optional classes conducted by the Professors, in New Testament Introduction, German, Syriac, and Chaldee. Once a week there is a rhetorical exercise for all the classes. Instruction in vocal culture and elocution is continued through the entire course. Sacred music is taught to those who desire it.

The Libraries of the University, to which the students have access, including the Reference Library of the Divinity School, contain nearly 120,000 volumes.

The Hooker Fellowship, for the encouragement of further theological study in this country or abroad, the income of which is $700 a year for two years after graduation, is open to the class entering in 1880.

Expenses. — There is no charge for instruction, use of libraries, or room rent. The rooms, which will accommodate 150 students, are designed in general for only one occupant. Each room has a bedroom attached and is carpeted and furnished with all needful furniture except bedclothing. The chief expenses for the session are for board, an average of $3.20 a week, fuel and light, $25 to $30, and $10 a year for care of room and incidental expenses.

Scholarship Funds and other Aid. — Students whose circumstances require it are aided to the amount of $100 a year, from the income of scholarship funds. Additional aid to the amount of $75 to $100 is afforded by the American Education Society to its beneficiaries.

Commencement of the Term. — The next annual term of study will begin on Thursday, Sept. 16, 1880, and continue till the third Thursday in May, when the vacation of four months, in which the students have the opportunity to engage in some form of remunerative labor, will commence.

Application for Admission. — The Seminary is open on equal terms to students of all Christian denominations. Applications for admission, or for the annual Catalogue containing further information, may be made to any member of the Faculty, or to the Secretary, PROF. GEORGE E. DAY, New Haven, Conn.

BRADFORD ACADEMY,

FOR YOUNG LADIES.

PARLOR OF A SUITE.

BRADFORD, MASS.

Bradford Academy is the oldest Seminary for young ladies in the country. Founded in 1803 and incorporated in 1804, it has been in successful operation ever since.

Bradford is on the line of the Boston and Maine Railroad, thirty miles from Boston. The situation is elevated, overlooking the city of Haverhill, across the river Merrimac, and commanding broad views on every side. The air is fresh and invigorating, and the healthfulness of the location has been abundantly proved during the past years of the school.

The building is of brick, four stories high, in the form of a cross, wide corridors extending from east to west, and affording healthful promenades in inclement weather. A parlor and two bedrooms constitute a suite of rooms for four pupils. These rooms are eleven and twelve feet high, and receive a full supply of air and sunlight. The school hall, recitation and music rooms, library, reading-room, gymnasium, parlors, dining-room, rooms for business, bathing-rooms and closets are all ordered on a generous scale for convenience, health and comfort. The entire building is heated by steam and lighted with gas, and supplied with an abundance of pure water. No efforts are spared to make this a model establishment.

Board and tuition, $320 per year. Music, Drawing and Painting, extra.

Applications for circulars and for admission may be made to Miss ANNIE E. JOHNSON, Principal, Bradford, Mass.

PHILLIPS ACADEMY,

ANDOVER, MASS.

CIId YEAR.

CECIL F. P. BANCROFT, Ph. D. - - Principal.

G. C. MERRILL, A. M., Natural Sciences. | D. Y. COMSTOCK, A. M., Latin.
E. G. COY, A. M., Greek. | H. P. BEACH, A. B., French and English.
M. S. MCCURDY, A. M., Mathematics. | Prof. J. W. CHURCHILL, Elocution.

The Academy continues to fit boys thoroughly and systematically, in large classes, and under an experienced Faculty, for the various colleges. The English department is also well organized and equipped for scientific and general studies.

The character of the circulation of the Year-Book makes it proper for the Academy to invite to itself in this card the attention of Christian ministers, a class always interested in education, and most frequently consulted as to the best schools. Clergymen have been educated here in exceptionally large numbers, and many ministers and missionaries are among its present patrons. The close vicinity of the Theological Seminary and the Abbot Academy for young ladies influences many parents in the choice of this school for their sons. Expenses may be kept within moderate limits, and pecuniary aid is open to pupils of superior merit who could not otherwise secure an education. Address the Principal.

ABBOT ACADEMY,

ANDOVER, MASS.

ABBOT ACADEMY is the oldest incorporated Academy (exclusively for girls) in this State if not in New England. Incorporated January 9, and opened May 6, 1829.

The course of study covers four years, and embraces all the usual academical studies, special attention being given to Mental and Moral Philosophy, English and General Literature, the History of Art, and to the Latin, French and German Languages. Superior advantages are afforded in Music, Drawing, Painting and Elocution.

This Academy enjoys many incidental advantages through other literary institutions, — The Theological Seminary and Phillips Academy, in the same village, while easy access to Boston and Cambridge brings within its reach fine Music, Art Galleries, Museums, Cabinets, and the Botanical Garden, to all of which classes, with their teachers, have occasional access. The Academy has a fine Clark Telescope, good working cabinets, models, and apparatus of its own.

The domestic arrangements are peculiarly homelike. The school is divided into three separate families in separate houses, each under its own matron and teachers. One of these families is made up wholly of pupils in French, in which language the daily table-talk is carried on under the direction of the French teacher. Another family is occupied with German in like manner. The grounds are spacious and tasteful, forming an attractive part of the quiet and pleasant village.

The school has been successfully conducted for twenty years by the same principal teachers, whose constant endeavor is to so educate girls that they may mature into healthful, cultivated, earnest, Christian womanhood.

The total expenses for board, including fuel, lights and washing, and for tuition, except music and drawing, is 300 per annum.

Application for admission or information should be made to Miss PHILINA McKEEN, Principal, Andover, Mass.

In connection with the Semi-Centennial Celebration last June, a Catalogue of all past pupils and teachers of the Academy, with their present address, was published, and is now for sale by MR. W. F. DRAPER. Price, 60 cents.

A full History of the School has been prepared and will be published within a few months.

CHAUNCY-HALL SCHOOL,

The Oldest Private School in Boston.

No. 259, BOYLSTON STREET.

ESTABLISHED 1828.

This School has sent classes to College annually for nearly fifty years, and has had but one candidate rejected.

One reason for this thorough preparation is the small size of the Latin classes. If a pupil is in a large class, he cannot receive sufficient help in his efforts to master the difficulties of a foreign language; and if he is entirely under the care of a private tutor, he loses the drill and development that can be obtained only by contact with other scholars of his age.

The arrangements here aim to COMBINE CLASS WORK WITH PRIVATE INSTRUCTION. The members of a new Latin class seldom exceed ten in number; and the teachers are ready to give extra help out of recitation hours.

A large majority of the Chauncy Hall candidates for College enter Harvard. Of the five boys sent there in 1879, only one was conditioned in Greek, no one had a condition in Latin, two entered CLEAR ON BOTH COURSES now allowed for admission to the University, and three had honors.

In 1878 one who entered Amherst took the prize of sixty dollars for being the most thoroughly prepared Freshman who entered that College.

Besides the great number of beginners in the classical course, there has been a large accession, from other classical schools, of pupils who had already begun Latin.

These have come, partly from the reasons stated above, and partly from two other causes:—

1. THE WATCHFUL CARE HERE IN REGARD TO SANITARY MATTERS.

2. THE ATTENTION GIVEN THROUGH THE WHOLE CLASSICAL AND ENGLISH COURSES TO COMPOSITION, ENGLISH LITERATURE, AND DECLAMATION.

The large number of teachers affords unusual advantages for STUDENTS WISHING TO ENTER PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS WITHOUT GOING THROUGH COLLEGE.

At this time such students are preparing here for the following schools: Harvard Medical, New York Medical, Harvard Law, Boston Theological.

YOUNG LADIES, who are intending to take the course now open to them at Harvard, can have the great advantage of reciting in the same class with boys who are in the regular course of preparation for that University, and of being under teachers who have successfully carried on such preparation for many years.

Inquiry can be made of the Chairman and Secretary of the Institute of Technology in regard to the Chauncy graduates presented there. The class to be sent in 1880 is the largest that has ever left this school.

THE BUSINESS EDUCATION

Is not confined to Arithmetic and Book-keeping, but gives such broad and generous culture as is demanded for a high position in the mercantile community.

The limited number of teachers in most High Schools tends to the neglect of the English studies for the sake of the ancient classics; but this evil is prevented at Chauncy Hall by having a corps of classical instructors so unusually large in proportion to the number of pupils that the teachers in the English departments are left free to devote themselves to the students who are fitting for the Institute of Technology or for business.

The building is in the most elegant part of the city, in the immediate vicinity of the new Old South Church. The Rev. Dr. Manning, pastor of the Old South, can be consulted in regard to the school.

NOVEMBER 3, 1879.

MAPLEWOOD INSTITUTE,

PITTSFIELD, MASS.

This institution for young ladies will commence its fortieth academic year Sept. 22, 1880. The uniformly excellent character of its provisions and attendance during this long period, more than the last half of it under the present administration, are presumably widely and favorably known.

COURSES OF STUDY.

Its aim is to give a thorough elementary training in Literature, Science and Art, having preparatory, collegiate and optional courses of study, with accomplished instructors and ample cabinets and apparatus.

It also affords rare facilities for the study of music, giving a diploma to pupils completing its course of study in that department.

It will prepare students to pass the Harvard examination for women, also to enter any of the recently established colleges for women, and any others which admit female students.

LOCATION AND CHARGES.

To very many former pupils and friends of the school in all parts of the country, its most attractive and salubrious location is well known; and its former facilities for the health and physical culture of its pupils, as well as their social and moral education, will be carefully maintained.

The charge for board and English tuition is $80 for each of its three annual terms, and a reduction is made to daughters of clergymen and pupils preparing to teach.

Parents and guardians desiring the combined advantages of a well-ordered household of not more than forty members and the training of accomplished instructors, in a most beautiful spot, in a most salubrious and beautiful region, are respectfully invited to correspond with the Principal, Rev. C. V. SPEAR.

SUMMER BOARD.

One of the buildings is specially fitted for summer boarders during the long vacation, when the grounds and the surrounding region make it a most delightful summer resort. Under skilful management the rooms have been filled for several seasons; and a large wing has recently been added for the purpose of increasing the facilities of the place both for summer boarders and in the months of the school year for pupils. Inquirers with reference to summer board address MAPLEWOOD HALL, Pittsfield, Mass.

Boston School of Oratory.

This school, which was originally one of the departments of the Boston University, was, after the decease of the Dean, Lewis B. Monroe, separated from that institution, and is now carried on by Robert R. Raymond, formerly Professor of the English Language and Literature in the Brooklyn Polytechnic, and more recently Teacher of Shakespeare and Dramatic Elocution in the University School.

It aims to give a thorough training in elementary and expressive elocution, in all their applications to the private reading circle, the pulpit, the bar, the platform and the stage.

Voice culture, the mechanism of speech, the philosophy of gesture and all that belongs to the art, are taught by competent instructors, themselves educated in the most recent and approved scientific methods. Illustrative readings and lectures from distinguished sources are frequently furnished during the course.

The full course extends over two academic years (each reckoned from about the 6th of October to about the 12th of the following May) and comprises three hours of school exercise daily, five days in the week. A shorter course of ONE YEAR'S duration is provided for those who are limited as to time.

Terms, One Hundred Dollars a year, payable half-yearly, in advance.

LASELL SEMINARY FOR YOUNG WOMEN,

AUBURNDALE (near Boston), MASS.,

Suggests to parents seeking a really good school, consideration of the following points in its methods: —

1st. Its Special Care of the Health of Growing Girls.—Our pupils receive the daily attention of a lady physician, and her instruction in matters of health, with constant references to their school-life. Work and recreation are suited to individual cases. The table is supplied with an abundance of the best food, in unusually great variety, and well cooked. Hours are arranged for early and long sleep. There are frequent excursions that combine illustration with pleasant diversion. There are none of the oft-repeated but, in the main, useless and hurtful test examinations, and like nervous exhaustives are avoided.

2d. Thorough Instruction in a Broadly Planned Course of Study quite above the grade of most seminaries, or in special courses to suit special cases. Students from our regular Freshman and Sophomore classes have gone without condition into the full classical course in Smith, Vassar, Boston, etc. Many so-called colleges for women do less complete work.

3d. Its Thoroughly Home-like Air and Character.—A judicious motherly care takes the place, for the most part, of given rules; the pupils soon feel that they are loved and trusted, and respond naturally to this trust and are at their best. The system of control (peculiar to this school), of self-government, after a successful probation, appeals to the best motives, and rarely fails to strengthen in each young woman a sense of responsibility to herself and her honor that is most valuable forever. The number of boarding pupils is limited, giving opportunity for individual care in habits of person, reading, manners, etc., etc., trifles, perhaps, but yet important in a woman's furnishing for life.

4th. The Handiwork Departments.—Boston specialists instruct in cooking, dress-cutting, millinery, art needlework and other unusual branches deemed useful for women, whether ever required for self-support or not. There is no requiring certain housework from each pupil, but these branches are placed upon the same basis as history, music, book-keeping, or any of the branches taught.

Parents are invited to consult the catalogue. Pupils received when vacancies occur. Expense, $320 and $350 the school year. C. C. BRAGDON, Principal.

FOR DYSPEPSIA,

Indigestion, Headache, Mental and Physical Exhaustion, Nervousness, Hysteria, Night-Sweats of Consumption, etc.

There seems to be no difference of opinion, in high medical authority, of the value of phosphoric acid, and no preparation has ever been offered to the public which seems to so happily meet the general want as this.

Every mental and physical exertion induces an augmented waste of the phosphates. This Acid Phosphate supplies that waste, and imparts new energy to the system, giving the feeling and sense of increased intellectual and physical power.

It is not nauseous, but agreeable to the taste.

No danger can attend its use.

Its action will harmonize with such stimulants as are necessary to take.

It makes a delicious drink with water and sugar only.

M. H. Henry, M. D., of New York, the celebrated family physician, says: "Horsford's Acid Phosphate possesses claims as a beverage beyond anything I know of in the form of medicine, and in nervous diseases I know of no preparation to equal it."

The late Winslow Lewis, M. D., of Boston, the distinguished and popular physician, said: "Having in my own person experienced those ills for which the Acid Phosphate is prescribed, I, having found great relief and alleviation by its use, most cheerfully attest my appreciation of its excellence."

Alfred Mudge & Son, Printers, Boston.

BY WAY OF EXPLANATION.

At a meeting recently jointly held by the Provisional and Publishing Committees of the National Council, it was voted that the Year Book be published as near the first of January, 1880, as may be, in an abbreviated form; and that it be introduced by a financial statement which, as briefly and exactly as possible, shall convey to all parties interested the essential facts — for the information of the churches, and the correction of rumors which the committees had learned are in circulation. The following statement has been drawn up in compliance with that vote.

The action of the last National Council on the subject of publication included the following points [Minutes, etc., pp. 40, 41]: —

1. That an annual compilation of the statistics of the American Congregational Churches — and especially an accurate and complete list of ministers in Congregational fellowship — "should be published under the sanction of the Council."

2. That "the necessary expenses thereof should be met by its constituent bodies."

3. To this end the Council, by unanimous vote, proceeded to request the several State Associations and Conferences "to solicit contributions amounting to one cent per member of their respective churches, and remit the same to the Treasurer of the Council." [This to meet the expense of the Minutes, statistics, etc , for 1878, published in 1879.]

4. That if, in compliance with the first vote aforesaid, the Publishing Committee "find it desirable" to issue the statistics for the remaining two years before the next meeting of the Council "for free distribution, one to each church in our fellowship," the Treasurer of the Council be authorized "to ask" from the churches "for a contribution not exceeding one half cent from each member, in each of those years, for that purpose." [This to meet the expense of the statistics for 1878 published in 1879, and of those for 1879 published in 1880.]

On studying carefully this action, the Publishing Committee felt that they could construe the first vote as no other than mandatory, in respect to the official publication by them, for each of the three years referred to, of the annual statistics of the churches and the ministry. It seemed to them that whatever discretion might be committed to them in the phrase, "find it desirable," etc., was not intended to leave to their judgment the main question, whether the statistics of those two years should be officially published or not; but only the lesser question, whether any other prudent way of publication than that of their issue at the expense of the churches, might prove to be open to use. Should they find such, they were at liberty to adopt it Should they fail to find it, they were left under instruction themselves to go forward and print them; calling upon the churches for the half cent per member which, in view of that contingency, had been voted by the Council. At the same time — the accompanying pecuniary recommendations having been adopted without question, or suggestion of dissent, by the legal delegates of the Congregational churches of the land in that Council assembled — it seemed to the Committee fair to presume that those churches might reasonably be expected honorably to respond to the constructive, and by no means unreasonable or onerous, pledge thus freely given by their authorized representatives on their behalf, and, as from time to time needed, to remit the moderate sum suggested.

The Committee accordingly proceeded, for the general good, to discharge, according to their best judgment and ability, the laborious and thankless duty imposed upon them. They were confronted in the outset by three difficulties standing in the way of their securing the performance of the work of publication with that economy which in all such cases is especially to be desired. (1) The Council had included within its Minutes, then awaiting publication, so many and so extended papers read before it, as to swell to a thick octavo volume of more than 460 pages, what otherwise might have been scarcely more than a pamphlet. (2) All publication of statistical matter is much more expensive than common work. And (3) the certainty that months must elapse before, under the most favorable conditions, the money could be expected to flow into the treasury for the payment of bills incurred, rendered necessary the resort to long credit, with its accompanying inevitable charge of interest, while at the same time taking away the advantage of securing the lowest cash rates for the work done.

Thus embarrassed, the Committee proceeded, with the following result of expenditure for the first year (1877–8).

Paid A. Mudge & Son, for the publication, distribution, etc., of 4,300 copies of the Minutes		$2,762 35
The other expenses of the twelvemonth were: —
Postage	$4 26
Printing circulars	9 50
Advertising	35 20
Paid W. H. Moore	55 35
S. Wolcott	45 00
C. Cushing	50 00
C. Demond (expenses to Detroit, $54.81; services, $50)	104 81
A. H. Quint (expenses and money paid out, $89.90; services in preparing statistics, and superintending their publication, $200)	289 90
Interest, etc.	84 10
		678 12

As was last year explained, this was done by pecuniary co-operation with the proprietor of the Congregational Quarterly, in whose pages the statistics had for several years been printed, and with the understanding that the right amicably to publish them solely in a Year Book thereafter (if deemed advisable) was as fully conceded by him, as it was reserved by the Committee.

When, some months later, the question of what form the publication required by the Council should take for 1878–9 came up, negotiations were held with the proprietor of the Quarterly. But it was found that he was not prepared to furnish the Committee with numbers of his journal containing the statistics, except for a larger sum than it would cost them to publish the same in the form of a Year Book, while there were some special advantages in the latter shape over the former. The Committee accordingly decided that they ought to publish a Year Book. And, in view of the facts, — that ministers especially desire and need such a manual; that to double the issue (the type once being set) would by no means double the expense; and that, were the circulation guaranteed to include ministers as well as churches, important aid could be derived from advertising, — it was voted to print 8,000 copies. This was accordingly done, nine beautiful designs for churches being contributed, free of all expense and ready for binding in, by an eminent architect. A copy of this manual was sent, post-paid, to every church and minister whose name was included within its lists.

In view of the fact that these Year Books were thus forwarded gratis to ministers as well as churches, the Committee further ventured to suggest to the churches that it would be welcome were they to contribute for the year at the rate of one cent per member, instead of one half-cent, as in the Council's vote requested.

The expenditures for the second year (1878–9) were: —

Paid A. Mudge & Son, for publication of 8,000 copies Year Book		$2,528 55
Expense of wrappers, directing, mailing, etc.		74 37
Postage (9c. each) on Year Books sent by mail		640 44
Total expense of Year Book		$3,243 36

The other expenses of the year were: —

Printing circulars, etc.	$22 39
Postage	4 00
Paid A. H. Quint (money paid out, $62.50, and work on statistics, etc., $200)	262 50
Rev. H. A. Hazen, for preparing vital statistics (amount formerly paid him by the Quarterly for the like service)	50 00
		338 89
		$3,582 25

The total expenditure of the two years has therefore been as follows, viz.: —

1877–8	$3,440 47
1878–9	3,582 25
	$7,022 72

Turning to the department of receipts for the same period, the report is as follows, viz.: —

Balance in treasury, October, 1877, from previous year	$39 60
Received before the resignation of C. Demond as treasurer (15 Jan., 1879), from the churches of thirteen States	2,276 98
Received (since 15 Jan., 1879) by the present treasurer, from the churches of eleven States	1,726 50
Year Books sold	98 65
Net receipts for advertising in Year Book for 1879 (thirty-six pages, and three pages of cover)	702 49
	$4,844 22

Comparing the two totals of receipts and expenditure, the result is this, viz.: —

Expended	$7,022 72
Received	4,844 22
Leaving the balance now due the treasurer, without casting interest due on loans	$2,178 50

The above statement will make it apparent to all that if any person have imagined that the Committee — to use the apostle's words — were "making a gain" from their place, or from the churches, such impression is far from the fact. The secretary has received nothing for any services as secretary; while for labor in collecting, compiling, and superintending the publication of the statistics, he has not been paid ordinary compensation for the time employed, — no regard even being had to extra personal expenses of travel, etc., made necessary in printing. It will further be seen that the present treasurer has never charged, or received, one cent in compensation for service, work upon the Year Book, expenses, or discomfort occasioned by the heavy burden assumed and borne by him for the sake of what both the Provisional Committee and the Publishing Committee of the Council regarded as demanded by the honor and welfare of the denomination, and, in the end, indispensable to save it from the disgrace of the failure of its commissioned representatives to meet pecuniary obligations fairly incurred by order of the Council.

When the Committees confronted the question of duty as to obeying the vote of the Council in publishing the statistics and "especially an accurate and complete list of ministers in Congregational fellowship" for 1879–80, they were at first disposed to allow the embarrassments of their position to plead their excuse for declining all further responsibility in the matter. But their conviction of the various inconveniences and misfortunes which must follow the failure to put forth any trustworthy list of the American Congregational churches and ministers for the next current year, at last led them to feel that they could report their action to the next meeting of the Council — to occur within the year — with more confidence, — at least of the assurance that they had not spared themselves in the endeavor to do their duty as they understood it, — should they publish, as directed, than otherwise. The necessity of the most rigid economy pressed on the one hand to suggest the cutting down of the issue one half, so as to supply the churches alone. The certainty on the other that to do so would deprive the Committee of all aid from advertising, which, in their judgment, if rightly managed — should the Year Book acquire permanence — may be eventually made to discharge a large part of its cost; with the feeling that the ministry would greatly miss it were it withheld from them; at length determined them to issue the volume substantially as last year, but to reduce its cost as much as possible, by leaving out the calendar, all miscellaneous matter, and chiefly — always the most considerable item of expense — the returns in figures of the exact condition of the churches for the twelvemonth reported.

These do not vary very much from year to year, so that approximate information with regard to them can be gathered from the Year Book of 1879; while the lists of ministers, with their post-office address — with multitudes, the most valued item of convenience which the statistics afford — become not only valueless, but misleading, if not annually renewed. The summaries have been retained.

They have accordingly prepared the volume which they thus introduce, in the feeling that of two evils they were bound to choose the lesser.

It remains, for the information of all concerned, to append the list of the Congrational bodies by States, with the sums respectively asked from them by the Council in its vote of 1877, with (in parallel column) the amount of their response to the same. It will be seen that no notice has been taken of the Council's action by 24 out of 42; while only 4 of the number have fully responded to both appeals. Connecticut, on the other hand, has generously gone largely beyond her liabilities.

☞ In all cases where money has been forwarded, it has been first credited to the earliest claim; and where the sum remitted in 1877–8 was not sufficient to square the account of the State for that year, and it remitted again in 1878–9, enough has been transferred from the second payment to close the first account, and the balance only passed to the credit of the second year. Thus, Ohio sent $210.10 in 1877–8, and $111.44 in 1878–9; but as the amount asked of Ohio in the first of those years was $219.94, that full sum has been credited for 1877–8, and the balance ($101.60) upon the account for 1878–9. In like manner, Iowa forwarded nothing in 1877–8, but sent $138.63 in 1878–9; which, by this rule, has been credited upon the former year, leaving $8.98 due upon it, besides the whole sum for the following year. So California, which sent nothing during the first year, subsequently remitted $42.63. The call for the first year upon her churches being for $41.99, that was squared, and the balance of 64c. passed to her credit upon the $22.24 asked for in 1878–9, leaving $21.60 due on that account. So Colorado sent on in the first year $7.10, which, as her dues for the two years amount only to $5.71, leaves $1.39 to her credit upon the asking for 1879–80.

The Committees respectfully appeal to the churches of States which have thus far, in whole or in part, failed to respond to the Council's request, to send their contributions as desired. Inasmuch as by their legal representatives they did not protest against, or even speak any word in opposition to, the vote under which action has been taken, will it not be a more fraternal and Christian act, even for those who may disapprove of what some have stigmatized as "an unauthorized tax," to assume their fair share with others, until the next Council shall give opportunity for full discussion and action satisfactory to all?

☞ Since the above was in type, Connecticut, first and alone, has generously forwarded $273.21 as her due for 1879–80; making her total contribution $1,364.81, or $282.08 more than the Council suggested for her churches.

The above tables record 82 churches organized; 186 ordinations or installations; 58 pastors ordained; 77 pastors installed; 36 evangelist ordinations; 15 uncertain; 95 pastors dismissed; 9 pastors who died in office. A gain of 31 in the number of pastors is here indicated; but dismissions are less carefully reported than installations, and the actual gain is probably less. These figures cover a different period from that included in the tabular summaries on a later page, and a part of the difference may be thus explained.

CONGREGATIONAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES, 1879–80.

THE Seminaries are alike open to students of all Christian denominations, except that Andover says "Protestants." Applicants present testimonials of good Christian character and (ordinarily) of church membership. A previous collegiate education is required, or (exceptionally) such equivalent attainments as will enable the student successfully to pursue all the studies of the Course. Chicago adds a Special Course for students who have not received a liberal education or its equivalent, but have "special gifts or marked Christian experience, or approved practical force and skill."

* A dash in the column of colleges implies that the student has never been connected with any college; the name of a college followed by a dash in place of year, implies that the student was connected with that college, but did not complete the course. A more precise list of the colleges and universities is on page 56.

† "Sen." means Senior, "Mid." Middle, "Jun." Junior. "Sp." means Special Course; and when followed by "S.," "M.," or "J.," means Special Course Senior, and the like. "R. L." means Resident Licentiate.

THE ANNUAL STATISTICS OF THE CHURCHES AND MINISTERS.

At the session of the National Council held in 1877, it was unanimously

"Resolved, That an annual compilation of the statistics of our churches throughout the country, and especially an accurate and complete list of ministers in fellowship, should be published under the sanction of this Council."

The following pages contain: —

1. The Lists of Churches (and pastoral supply) arranged by States, and alphabetically in each State.
2. List of Foreign Missionaries.
3. Summaries of statistical reports compiled from the State Minutes, and made to conform to State boundaries.
4. The National and State organizations of the Churches, with lists of officers and times of meetings.
5. Officers of the National Co-operative Societies.
6. Alphabetical List of Ministers, with Post-office addresses.

The List of Churches is compiled from the several State Minutes, or by correspondence. The pastoral supply has been corrected to date by laborious correspondence with the State Secretaries, with Home Missionary officials (to both classes our grateful thanks being due), and with others interested; and proof-sheets have been read and corrected by all these persons.

The List of Churches of this year is compared, name by name, with that of last year, and all variations are mentioned at the end of each State list, so that each church can be traced from year to year.

A church in brackets is one organized since date of annual report. Some States prefix a star (*) to the name of a minister (not installed) if he be not a member of any organization of ministers or churches in the State reporting.

An attempt has been made, for the first time, to give the P. O. location of churches, and it is partially accomplished. But the P. O. address of ministers must be sought in the Alphabetical List of Ministers; because one may be in charge of four or five churches, or he may live elsewhere than the place of the church where he preaches.

Installed pastors are marked "p"; others in service are not marked. Blanks in the column of pastoral supply, meaning no regularly engaged minister, are left blank for the convenience of those who note pastoral changes.

We this year sadly omit (to lessen the cost) the year of organization of each church, — the minister's year of ordination, and that of commencement of labor at present location, — the columns of membership, additions, removals, baptisms, Sabbath schools, families, and benevolent contributions, — list of ministers without pastoral charge, — and list of licentiates. Some of these items may be sought in last year's issue. The tables of Summaries, however, are substantially continued; and the Alphabetical List of Ministers is so indexed as to show (but not by States) who are without pastoral charge.

For rules in indexing names of ministers, see their Alphabetical List.

SUMMARIES OF STATISTICS.

The most important items in the general summaries hitherto published, are continued this year. The tables of statistics for the years 1857–1879 are regretfully omitted, but may be found in the Year-Book of 1879.

The following tables are compiled, with great labor, from the several published issues of State Minutes, or from manuscript reports. Few of the State organizations conform strictly to State lines, and the reports have therefore to be completely revised. Scarce a fifth give "totals" which can be copied. For the items of ministerial supply, and "other ministers," not a single report can (from the nature of the case) be copied. In many States, also, the reports are so planned that it is necessary to "check" on an alphabetical list the name of every minister supplying a church, and then count the classes of churches and of ministers, correcting errors until all perfectly balance.

The several State Secretaries have given the kindest assistance possible. But it is greatly to be desired that all would adopt substantially the schedule of statistics recommended by the National Council; and especially adopt its forms of Summaries. And, for many purposes, it is EARNESTLY requested that the State lists of ministers contain full first names. One State this year reports two men named "A. Jones": who, out of that State, can tell which of the two esteemed brothers is at a given place, but for the Year-Book to enlighten him?

Compared with last year:

1. Net increase in number of churches, 54.
2. Net gain in number of church-members, 7,266.
3. Net gain in number in Sabbath Schools, 1,764.
4. Families reported in 2,407 congregations, — an increase of 15,450 over number reported in 2,161 families last year. The same average would give a total of 276,000 families; but this would be too high an estimate.
5. Increase in benevolent contributions reported, $146,800.59; 2,817 churches reporting this year, against 2,760 reporting last year.
6. Increase in money raised for Home Expenditure, $280,432.79; 1,890 churches reporting that year, as against 1,696 reporting last year.
7. The number of churches having installed pastors slightly decreases as usual. In 1858, our reports gave 947; in 1880, with a net gain of 1,359 churches, we report 898 with settled pastors. But the number of churches having pastoral supply slightly increases as usual.
8. It is to be regretted that the separate list of ministers "without pastoral charge" has to be (for economy) omitted. The lack is partly supplied in the Alphabetical List of Ministers, where those supplying churches are accompanied by figures denoting pages. A list would show that a large number of the men are employed in various necessary work. The reports show, for instance, that men are employed as presidents or professors in academies, colleges, and theological seminaries; superintendents of schools (State or city); secretaries, superintendents, and agents of the national co-operative societies; missionaries to the freedmen or Indians; chaplains in army, or hospitals, or sailors' bethels, or asylums; city missionaries, evangelists, colporteurs, editors; in pastoral service in other denominations. All of these are in useful, even indispensable, positions.

The returns to be obtained during this year will correspond with the national census year. It is therefore particularly desirable that every State organization should secure full returns, — an absolutely accurate list of churches, and complete figures. It is also very desirable that each State should adopt all the points in the schedule recommended by the National Council. The only items which any omit are, absentees, number of families in the congregations, Benevolent Contributions, and moneys received for Home Expenditure.

Notes. — 1. Most of the "acting pastors" are practically the same as "pastors"; only not formally "installed," and being engaged for but a limited period.

2. The number of ministers "not in pastoral work" includes necessarily (with a few authorized exceptions) only those who are members of some Association or Conference.

3. The number of ordinations, etc., cover the calendar year 1879, as in Lists in this issue. Further items of deaths of ministers are given in the "Vital Statistics."

Notes — 1. The "total" church members above, in several States, and therefore in the general total, exceeds the sum of "males" and "females," because some churches report the total without mentioning the particulars whose sum makes it; but the relative proportion is not affected.

2. "Absent" denotes persons who live at a place other than that of their church relation, and do not worship with their church. * Last year's report.

3. The churches making no reports are included in the Summaries; a past report of membership is included if so done by the State reports, but no estimate is made of "additions," etc.

4. The removals by "discipline" sometimes include the number of persons whose names are dropped from the church lists on account of long absence.

5. "Families" are reported by 2,407 churches; "Benevolent Contributions" by 2,817 churches (2,760 last year); "Home Expenditures" by 1,890 churches (1,696 last year).

6. Blanks signify "no report." * Last year's report.

LIST OF CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS IN THE UNITED STATES

REPORTED BY THE SEVERAL STATE ORGANIZATIONS.

THE following is a compilation of the alphabetical lists furnished by the State Associations and Conferences, corrected by correspondence with their Secretaries, to the latest possible date. The Secretary of the Council in no case presumes to insert or omit a name upon his own responsibility. The State organizations are alone responsible; but the Secretary has used his utmost endeavors to obtain a complete and correct list. If any names are omitted, it is because they are not reported by any organization in any State.

The figures refer to pages where the name will be found, but apply only to those in pastoral service or to foreign missionaries. Those without figures are presumed to be not in pastoral service.

Names starred (*) are of persons who, although mentioned (usually as supplying churches), are reported to be members of no organization of Congregational churches or ministers.

Licentiates are not included in this list, nor are ministers of other denominations.

The compiler is painfully convinced of some errors in first names, initials, and spelling. No pains have been spared to secure accuracy; but efforts failing, the compiler has not ventured to follow his own convictions, against the unmistakable testimony of the reports.

The compiler again earnestly begs the State Secretaries to give the first name o every minister. A few States exclude them almost entirely.

AMERICAN BOARD OF
COMMISSIONERS FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS.
1880.

Our Present Field, as reported in 1879, includes sixteen missions, the statistics of which for a single year are exceedingly instructive, illustrating both the breadth and variety of our work. This work includes direct evangelistic effort through missionaries and native helpers; an immense educational trust, extending from the primary school to the college and theological seminary; Sunday-school instruction; the preparation, publication and circulation in different languages of books, tracts and newspapers; assistance in the erection of buildings for churches and schools; grants in aid to feeble churches and to native home missionary societies; the humane service of missionary physicians, sometimes in the care of large dispensaries and hospitals; also charitable ministry, continuous and varied, to the sick, the poor and the oppressed. All these departments upon the foreign field are economically managed under the one efficient and experienced administration of the American Board. The field now includes the following missions, arranged according to the order of time when the work in each commenced:—

1, Western India, 1813; 2, Ceylon, 1816; 3, Western Turkey, 1822; 4, Madura in Southern India, 1834; 5, Eastern Turkey, 1835; 6, Dakota Indians, 1835; 7, Zulus in Southeastern Africa, 1835; 8, Foochow in South China, 1847; 9, Central Turkey, 1847; 10, Micronesia, 1852; 11, North China, 1854; 12, Japan, 1869; 13, European Turkey, 1871; 14, Spain, 1872; 15, Western Mexico, 1873; 16, Austrian Empire, 1873; 17, Central Africa, 1879.

Our Present Force, now occupying six hundred and seventy-three stations and outstations, numbers but one hundred and forty-one ordained missionaries, of whom seven are physicians, and two hundred and twenty-seven assistant missionaries, making a total from this country of three hundred and seventy-five. Our native force is more than thrice this number, a total of 1,171, of whom 432 are native pastors, preachers and catechists.

Our Native Churches, two hundred and sixty-one in number, not including those of the Hawaiian Islands, enroll over fifteen thousand members, of which number over two thousand were received last year on confession of their faith in Christ.

Our Training and Theological Schools, including station classes, thirty in number, are giving instruction to over nine hundred young men, many of them fitting for the Christian ministry.

Our Girls' Schools, of the higher order, thirty-four in number, enroll over twelve hundred pupils, many of them fitting to be teachers, many of them to be Christian wives and mothers, constituting the educational power of Christian homes for the next generation.

Our Common Schools, six hundred and twenty-six in number, enroll over twenty-four thousand pupils, making a total of nearly twenty-seven thousand under Christian instruction.

Regular Donations from the Churches, which during the past six years have declined by more than $100,000, need to advance beyond those of last year at least forty per cent, in order to meet the appropriations already made for the coming year. Upon these donations and upon ordinary legacies we must rely for the support of the regular work of the Board, the munificent Otis bequest having been sacredly set apart for evangelistic and educational enlargement, and for a new mission in Africa. May we hope for a contribution, as generous as possible, from every church? Our main instrumental reliance for awakening and deepening missionary interest in the churches is upon pastors.

Upon an average, ninety-four per cent of all the contributions and legacies given to the treasury of the American Board is distributed among the several missions, according to the extent and necessity of the work most economically adjusted. Three per cent is expended in the important department of communicating missionary intelligence to our constituency at home, through the distribution of the monthly Herald and other missionary documents, and through the work of our two faithful district secretaries, one stationed at New York and one at Chicago. All other expense, including the grave financial administration annually of over half a million dollars, extending around the world, including, also, a very large correspondence with the missionaries abroad and the churches at home, is included in the remaining three per cent.

Dividends of at least "an hundred fold" are promptly paid, "good measure, pressed down and running over." For particulars, see The Missionary Herald, Life and Light, our last Annual Report, also various papers and leaflets to be obtained at the Rooms of the Board, No. 1 Somerset Street, Boston, Mass.

American College and Education Society.

FORMED by the union, in 1874, of the "American Education Society" and the "Society for the Promotion of Collegiate and Theological Education." The American Education Society was organized and received its charter from Massachusetts in the year 1816. The College Society, as the other organization was popularly called, was formed in 1843. It was for years a voluntary association without a charter. In 1872 it received a charter also from the State of Massachusetts. These two organizations were brought together under a new charter from the same State in May, 1874.

President. — CHARLES BENEDICT, Esq., Waterbury, Conn.

Vice-Presidents. — JOHN M. PINKERTON, Esq., Boston; SAMUEL HOLMES, Esq., New York City.

Secretary. — Rev. INCREASE N. TARBOX, D. D., Boston.

Treasurer. — JAMES M. GORDON, Esq., Boston.

Office of the Society, No. 10 Congregational House, Boston.

Income of the Society for year ending April 30, 1879, $63,839.74 Of this amount $37,994.89 was devoted to the help of Western institutions, and $20,885.32 was appropriated to young men in colleges and theological seminaries, studying for the ministry. The balance was for current expenses.

The whole number of young men assisted by the Society in their studies for the ministry since 1816 is 6,709. The institutions at the West which have been assisted by the Society since 1843 are the following, viz: Western Reserve, Illinois, Wabash, and Marietta Colleges, and Lane Theological Seminary. These five are the institutions which the Society took under its care at the beginning, in 1843. Those which have since been received upon the list are Knox, Beloit, Thayer, Wittenberg, Oberlin, and Berea Colleges, the College of California, Pacific University, Olivet, Ripon, Iowa, Carelton, Doane, Drury, Washburn, and Colorado Colleges, and Pacific Theological Seminary.

The ten last named are still upon the Society's list.

The number of young men now receiving assistance from the Society is 295.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I do hereby give and bequeath to the "AMERICAN COLLEGE AND EDUCATION SOCIETY" the sum of ——— dollars, to be paid within —— months after my decease, and to be applied to the uses and purposes of that Society.

☞ Thirty dollars constitutes an Honorary Membership.

CHURCH BUILDING SOCIETY.

Prof. N. A. CALKINS, Treas.
39 BIBLE HOUSE, N. Y.

This Society grew out of the first National Council convened at Albany in 1852, and is the only national society ever organized by Congregationalists in the direct interests of their own churches. It had for its end the establishing of Congregational churches, not in New England alone, but throughout the length and breadth of the land.

It does its work mainly by the systematic aiding of feeble churches in erecting houses of worship. Its work is largely in the West. It seeks to build sanctuaries only where they are needed. It makes grants and loans, giving loans to each church not to exceed $500, and this in such a way as to stimulate personal endeavor, and always to pay last bills, thus freeing the churches from debt. What is given or loaned is protected by trust mortgage against loss, should the churches aided fail, as they sometimes must. These trust mortgages keep the churches afterwards from the possibility of making other mortgages, and so of incurring debts in the future.

Since the organization of the Union it has aided in the erection of 1,066 Congregational meeting-houses, or more than one third of all that now exist on the continent. The great proportion of the churches in the West have been thus aided, and, without such aid, could not have built when they did, if at all. The demand for church building now is greater than ever before. In some of the Western States and Territories from one half to two thirds of the Home Missionary churches are houseless, and they must have aid or die. It seems a waste to organize churches that cannot be housed. The demand for church building increases yearly as the western half of the country is being settled. On the vigorous carrying forward of this church-building work depends, to a large extent, the future usefulness of the churches themselves, the growth of our denomination, the success of Home and Foreign Missions, the future of our country, and so, to human view, the destiny of the world.

THE AMERICAN
Home Missionary Society.

Incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, was organized in New York City, May 10, 1826. Its President is Rev. THEODORE D. WOOLSEY, D. D., LL.D.; Secretaries for Correspondence, Rev. DAVID B. COE, D. D., Rev. HENRY M. STORRS, D. D.; Treasurer, Rev. ALEXANDER H. CLAPP, D. D. Office, 34 Bible House, New York.

THE HOME MISSIONARY, a monthly magazine, published by the Society, at sixty cents a year, including postage, gives a running account of the progress of the work in all parts of the country, chiefly from the pens of the superintendents and missionaries personally engaged in it. An Annual Report sums up the results of the year.

THE LEAFLET, a monthly tract, price five dollars a hundred for the year, is devoted to the Sunday-school department of the Society's work.

For nearly fifty-four years the Society has been organizing churches, mainly in the West, and aiding in the support of their ministers till those churches are able to assume the whole expense. Its missionaries have from the first organized Sunday-schools, provided proper teachers for them, and by watchful oversight have secured their permanence and highest usefulness. The Society now also raises and disburses money for supplying these missionary Sunday-schools with libraries and other helps.

In connection with the labor of its missionaries, 3,936 churches have been organized, and 2,009 have come to self-support. It has collected and disbursed, in cash, about $8,500,000, and in clothing, books and other supplies, largely the offerings of Christian women, more than $1,178,000 — in all, over $9,678,000. The additions to the churches have been 286,172. Schools, academies, and colleges in nearly every Western State are among the direct fruits of the work.

The number of missionaries employed in its fifty-third year (1878-79) was 946, about 600 of them in States and Territories west of New York. They preached regularly in 2,126 stations, and at frequent intervals in many hundreds more. The number of Sunday-school and Bible-class scholars was about 88,000. The additions to the churches were 5,232 — 3,049 of them on profession of faith. Seventy-eight churches were organized, and forty-seven came to self-support. Last year's receipts were, in cash, $273,691.53; in supplies, $58,000 — in all, about $331,700.

At least $300,000 in cash are needed this year to sustain the missionaries now in the field and to take up only such new work as the providence and Spirit of God imperatively call upon the Society to assume at once. For securing the means essential to the carrying on of this great work the Society depends, under GOD, on the zealous co-operation of the pastors and members of the Congregational churches of the land.

THE American Tract Society

Is one of the grand union organizations brought into being by the development of the missionary spirit early in the century. Its special object has been, by means of tracts and books and Christian periodicals, to speak to the hearts of men, through their eyes. It has prepared and maintained a great reservoir of pure and wholesome Christian reading, from which all those wishing to get good themselves or do good to others, might draw at will. It has also aimed to carry the truth wherever it might do good. It has placed its reading in the hands of missionaries, foreign and home, sailors' chaplains, and of men and women all over the world who were disposed to use it in Christian work. It has established the special agency of Colportage by which to reach the most needy places in our own land.

The Society circulates more than $400,000 worth of Christian truth annually. Hundreds of the very best writers of Christian literature have been contributors to its stores and are now ready to furnish whatever is needed either for permanent or periodical reading. Seven weekly and monthly papers are published, each one of which is a model of its kind. Five thousand books, thirty thousand tracts, and twenty thousand papers can be issued from its presses every day. It has a fine assortment of books for Sunday-School Libraries at moderate prices and fixed discounts. The papers are beautifully illustrated and are furnished as cheaply as those of the same quality can anywhere be obtained.

Thanks to an appreciative public, the business of the Society has become so large as to pay all its running expenses, so that it is in a good position to carry forward its benevolent work. For years it has spent every dollar which has been contributed for the purpose by churches and individuals, in grants of Christian reading to go all over the world, and in the support of its faithful, self-denying, hand-to-hand missionaries, who do their work very largely in regions where as yet the churches have not come.

It is pleasant to notice that the interest in the Tract work, which seemed to flag for a time, is reviving. Many churches have come to its support during the past two or three years Congregational churches, through this Society, can have the opportunity of furnishing the Christian reading which they love to the needy people of the whole land, without the prejudice of a denominational imprint and without the cost of machinery.

In behalf of those in need in this country and in foreign lands and on the sea, calls are made for ten times the amount that can now be furnished. The Society will gladly respond to those calls to the full extent warranted by the liberality of its supporters.

AMERICAN SEAMEN'S FRIEND SOCIETY.

80 Wall Street, New York. Congregational House, Boston.

This society is prosecuting its work among seamen with increasing encouragement. Chaplains and missionaries are in the field, preaching on shipboard and ashore, as they have opportunity; visiting the sick and dying, and ministering to the comfort and spiritual wants of seamen at home and in foreign lands. THE SAILORS' HOME, in New York, which has accommodated over ninety thousand seamen, has been rebuilt and is now reopened.

Over 6,500 libraries, containing more than three hundred and fifty thousand volumes, are now afloat on board six thousand five hundred vessels, sailing on all oceans and seas and navigable rivers. Each library is in the hands of some sailor or officer, who sees to the distribution of the books, and in many cases holds prayer-meetings and conducts religious worship. All donors of libraries are informed what vessel their libraries go to sea in, and also what is heard from them when at sea. These libraries are fast displacing the corrupting literature of the sea. Many conversions have been reported in connection with this agency. Twenty dollars supplies a library containing a Bible and about forty books. Twenty thousand vessels remain to be supplied.

THE SAILOR'S MAGAZINE collects and communicates information to enlist the sympathy and co-operation of Christians of every name. It is published monthly, each number containing 32 pages, making at the end of the year 384 pages of valuable matter, relating to the work of the AMERICAN SEAMEN'S FRIEND SOCIETY, including facts and incidents about Sea Missions, Prayer Meetings at Sea, Letters from Sailor Missionaries, Reports about Loan Libraries and from Chaplains, Disasters at Sea, Position of the Planets, occasional Sermons by distinguished Preachers on the Influence of Commerce in the Conversion of the World, etc., etc., making a volume each year of permanent value for reference, and for use in Monthly Concerts. Price, including postage, $1.00 a year. Gratis to life members who request it. Also, to pastors taking a collection for the cause, and to donors of libraries.

Some of the considerations that urge to Christian effort in behalf of seamen: —

Sailors are exerting a vast influence in the world. They go everywhere, visit every shore and every port, and come into contact with every class of people. Wicked sailors scatter the seeds of pollution and death, hinder the work of missions, and bring reproach on their calling and country. Christian sailors are scattering the seeds of truth, opening the way for Christian missions, and helping missionaries in all parts of the world. Over six thousand sailors are keeping in circulation three hundred thousand volumes of Christian books on board of more than six thousand vessels, going and coming between the seaports of all countries. The commerce of the United States employs 500,000 sailors.

Vast interests are committed to their care. They have, for the time being, the custody of ship and cargo, and all on board. Millions of treasure, and many thousand precious lives, are dependent upon their fidelity and skill.

It is a WORK APPEALING TO THE GRATITUDE of all civilized communities, every one of which is benefited by the arduous services the sailor renders to society at large.

S. W. HANKS, District Secretary,
CONGREGATIONAL HOUSE, BOSTON.

Congregational Singing.

No part of the service of the church is more inspiring than that of song, but the true value and effectiveness of this service depend largely upon the character of both the hymns and tunes used. Numerous collections have been made and published to meet the requirements of this part of public worship: of them all none has been so deservedly popular or so widely adopted as by Rev. Dr. CHARLES S. ROBINSON. The unprecedented circulation of this book is the most convincing proof of its adaptation to the real wants that Christians have felt in the services of divine worship. It was the first to present a careful and analytic arrangement of hymns according to subject, and yet adapted to music appropriate to their rendering in actual use. It gave, moreover, a frank and cordial recognition of choirs, not only by the higher style of music admitted, but by a mechanical suggestion of special pieces to be sung only by those trained in artistic skill. More than half a million of copies have gone into use among the churches of various denominations.

"SONGS FOR THE SANCTUARY,"

After a few years, however, there was need of a fuller recognition of psalm-versions in some congregations; many pastors desired a separate grouping of the Psalms, in their order and in their familiar forms. The power of association rendered these versions dear for their own sake, even if a few should have to be restored to a less felicitous versification. Thus Dr. ROBINSON'S second book, was published, and the opportunity was taken to introduce some of the later translations of the Scriptural Psalms and of the ancient and mediæval hymns, as well as some of the newer and already favorite tunes.

"PSALMS AND HYMNS AND SPIRITUAL SONGS,"

But what the churches evidently wanted was a manual resembling "Songs for the Sanctuary" in most of its features, though less bulky and less costly. During the fifteen years which have elapsed since that book was published, popular taste has been moving in two directions, almost opposite. Musicians demanded chorals, harmonized according to artistic rules; tunes of a higher character in style of composition. In one way and another the various churches had gained access to English and German manuals containing pieces which rapidly rose into favor.

Then, in the other direction, the people at large had been moving towards melodic and refrain tunes. Many most excellent hymns and versions of psalms found their way into the memories and hearts of Christians. How to group all these into a portable volume that should retain the old and yet make room for the new, that should recognize the chorals and keep the refrains, was a task of no light labor. This work Dr. ROBINSON has accomplished in his latest book, with admirable skill. But no one can cast his eye over the pages, noting words, music, and adaptation, without seeing plainly that the author has drawn upon all his previous experience in arrangement and choice, and has heard gladly all that the churches have been saying as they tried to tell their real wants.

"SPIRITUAL SONGS,"

The following review of "Spiritual Songs" appeared in The Congregationalist of February 5, 1879, and is quoted here as an excellent comparison between two of Dr. ROBINSON'S most popular books:—

"DR. ROBINSON'S NEW HYMN-BOOK.

"Rev. C. S. ROBINSON, D. D., of New York City, the compiler of the 'Songs for the Sanctuary,' has just published a new hymn-book, 'Spiritual Songs.' As the former has been widely used and greatly liked, we have taken it as a suitable standard of comparison in studying the merits of the latter. The 'Spiritual Songs' contains nearly three hundred hymns less than its predecessor, and many which it includes are not in the other. This difference, however, is to the advantage of the new book. We always have wondered how a great many hymns in the 'Songs for the Sanctuary' ever found admission to its pages. It has been thoroughly winnowed, a number of admirable hymns have been added, and the result is the book before us. A few hymns which are valuable are not here, but few, if any, undeserving ones have been admitted, and among those added are some of the choicest, such as those beginning respectively, 'There's a wideness in God's mercy,' 'The Son of God goes forth to war,' and 'Lord, my weak thought in vain would climb,' without which no such book would be reasonably complete. Dr. ROBINSON has gathered his harvest with a cautious, yet catholic spirit, from a broad field, and has chosen only the best.

"As to music, the new book has about a hundred and seventy-five more tunes than its predecessor. The old familiar friends are here, and care has been taken to add to them only such, in general, as seem worthy of so goodly a fellowship. Many rich tunes are included from German and English masters, and the more modern among our own composers are not unrepresented. The desires of our choirs, and of those who prefer congregational singing, have been met, perhaps, as well as is possible by the same book. * * * * * We must not omit to say, also, that words and music have been fitted to each other very successfully, and that both words and music are credited carefully to their authors. The hymns are well proportioned in number and variety to the different subjects, there are the usual indexes, and also an unusual and useful index of first lines of all the stanzas in the book. The Scriptural texts on the inside of the covers are very suitable, and the paper, type, and binding are good. * * * *

"We regard this book, on the whole, as the best hymn-book which we ever have seen, and we predict for it great favor with the church."

The Sunday School Times says: "Dr. ROBINSON'S 'Songs for the Sanctuary' has probably been the most popular and successful of the undenominational hymn-books of recent years. The present volume ('Spiritual Songs') seems to us to be a better book, since it embodies the results of recent hymnological progress, without losing the standard and popular excellence of the previous collection."

Here, then, is offered to the Lord's people a manual of sacred song, containing the familiar and the fresh, in wise proportion, portable in size and cheap in price. The binding is strong and elegant.

Accompanying these volumes, smaller works have been compiled, so as to offer, as far as practicable, the same selections of hymns and tunes in the weekly conferences as in the Sabbath services. Thus it is believed that the taste and skill of those accustomed to sing in the prayer-meetings will be lifted and educated, and at the same time the voices of the congregation will become acquainted with what they will be asked to sing in the sanctuary. In May last a small edition of "Spiritual Songs" was issued, and its success has been almost unprecedented. Of this book,

"SPIRITUAL SONGS FOR SOCIAL WORSHIP,"

the New York Evening Post said:—

"We had occasion not long ago to write almost enthusiastically of Dr. CHAS. S. ROBINSON'S 'Spiritual Songs' as the very best col lection of hymns and music for church use with which we are acquainted, the best not only for what it contains, but also for what the editor's sound judgment and cultivated taste have done in the way of exclusion. We have now to announce the appearance of an abridged chapel edition of the work, consisting of about half the hymns and tunes in the original, specially selected for their fitness for social worship, with some additions. The work is intended for use in prayer-meetings and other gatherings for informal social worship, and its convenience and desirability for such uses can scarcely be too highly praised. The type is clear and large, and the volume is very substantially made."

The New York Observer has described it as "small, neat, comprehensive, sufficient, convenient and excellent."

The hymn-books of the lighter order, which have been so popular during the last few years, have served a good purpose, but the churches have grown tired of that class of music; hence, "Spiritual Songs for Social Worship," retaining a few of those which have proved most acceptable and worth preserving, combined with the cream of the old standard favorites adapted to social worship, is being eagerly sought after; thousands have already been sold, and the twenty-fifth thousand is now ready. The low price of the book (60 cents to churches in quantities), the rich binding, cover-linings and deep red edges, all combine to make this the favorite for prayer-meetings over everything of the kind yet published.

Rev. A. J. TITSWORTH, of Chelsea, Mass., has written to the publishers: "It is fresh, bright, spiritual, and its presence has materially increased the attendance upon our prayer-meetings."

All of Rev. Dr. ROBINSON'S hymn and tune books are published by Messrs. SCRIBNER & CO., 743 Broadway, New York, to whom any inquiries or requests for examination copies should be addressed.

Specimen pages are sent free of charge, and copies for examination are gladly forwarded to pastors or church committees, to be returned without charge if not adopted. No church should adopt a new hymn and tune book without examining Rev. Dr. ROBINSON'S collections, which are now used by more Congregational churches than all other hymn and tune books combined.

THIRTY YEARS AGO THE BRONCHIAL TROCHES were introduced, being prepared by combining in a convenient form several medicinal substances held in general esteem among physicians in the treatment of Bronchial Affections and Coughs.

The BRONCHIAL TROCHES contain ingredients acting directly on the organs of the voice. They have an extraordinary effect in all disorders of the Throat and Larynx, restoring a healthy tone when relaxed, either from cold or over-exertion of the voice, and produce a clear and distinct enunciation. To PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS they will be found invaluable.

Imitations are offered for sale, many of which are injurious. THE GENUINE BRONCHIAL TROCHES ARE SOLD ONLY IN BOXES, with fac-simile of the proprietors on the wrapper.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES

1880

A COUGH, COLD or SORE THROAT requires immediate attention. A continuance for any length of time causes irritation of the Lungs, or some chronic Throat Affection. Neglect oftentimes results in some incurable Lung disease. THE TROCHES are not new and untried, but, having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES have proved their efficacy by a test of many years, and will almost invariably give immediate relief.

THE GREAT BIBLE DICTIONARY.

By WILLIAM SMITH. Unabridged, enlarged, corrected. Four volumes, 3667 pages, with 596 illustrations. Price, in cloth, $26.00; sheep, $30.00; half morocco, $35.00; half Russia, $38.00; full morocco or full calf, $45.00; full Russia or Levant, $50.00.

No similar work in our own or in any other language is for a moment to be compared with it.—Quarterly Review (London).

It is a library in itself; it is scholarly and critical enough for the most advanced student; it is readable and interesting enough for the average mind; its arrangement is admirable; its tone is reverent but independent.—Watchman and Reflector (Boston).

There cannot well be two opinions about the merits of Smith's Bible Dictionary. What was, to begin with, the best book of its kind in our language, is now still better.—Prof. Roswell D. Hitchcock.

This magnificent work has no rival in its department.—Sunday School Times.

The grounds for its superiority to the English edition of the same work are these:—

Five hundred more pages and one hundred more engravings in the American edition than in the original English; more than one thousand errors of reference corrected; an index of Scripture illustrations.

In paper, press-work, cuts, maps, etc., we do not see anything to choose between this and the more costly English original; while in a multitude of other respects which affect the trustworthiness, thoroughness and supreme excellence of the work as a thesaurus of Biblical knowledge, this is vastly to be preferred.—Congregational Review (Boston).

No other edition of Smith's Bible Dictionary is nearly as full, complete or accurate as this, which was edited by Prof. H. B. HACKETT, D. D., and Prof. EZRA ABBOT.

THE CHURCH HYMN BOOK,

WITH TUNES.

By Rev. E. F. HATFIELD, D. D.

A MANUAL OF PRAISE FOR WORSHIP IN THE CHURCH, THE SOCIAL CIRCLE, AND THE FAMILY, was published in June, 1872, and contained 1,469 Hymns and Metrical Chants, with 432 Tunes.

The half note was adopted as the standard measure of time for the music, according to the usage of modern English and German authors, and a number of choice choral tunes were introduced, and the harmonies of many of the tunes were so arranged by Prof. S. P. Warren as to render them very rich, grand, and full in tone, though requiring care in singing the alto, tenor, and bass parts. This edition is still published, and it is quite popular with churches that are able to give time and attention to the practice of congregational singing.

THE NEW EDITION of the Church Hymn Book, with Tunes, was issued June, 1875. In this the hyms are the same, word for word, as in the former edition. no change having been made in them.

The revision consists of a change from the half to the quarter note as the standard in the music, and of a RESTORATION of the harmonies, so that the tunes appear as they were originally written by their authors, and in their most familiar form.

Over FIFTY excellent and popular tunes have been inserted in this edition that were not in the first; some of them take the places of tunes that were repeated in the former edition, and are now used but once, and some displace choral and minor tunes that were considered, by some excellent singers, to be too heavy for congregational use.

The book is so arranged that there are 356 pages, where, without turning a leaf, a tune of the same metre can be found on the opposite page, in addition to the one to which the hymn is set, giving a choice of two tunes for each one of 1,053 hymns.

It will be noticed that in nearly every case where there is a NEW tune upon one page, there will be found a FAMILIAR tune upon the opposite one.

The book, containing as it does 1,469 hymns, selected with great care by Rev. Dr. HATFIELD (a pastor for more than thirty years), furnishes a theme for every variety of subjects suitable for use in Christian worship, and a hymn calculated to express every phase of Christian experience.

THE COLLECTION OF TUNES is larger and more varied than that of any similar book that has been published recently, and the edition of 1875 contains over 450 different tunes of the most popular and varied character.

The Church Hymn Book, with Tunes, can hardly fail to meet the wants of any church, as the Hymns are REAL HYMNS, and not merely sacred poetry; and the tunes are of such a character as to satisfy the wants of the church for years, and are not trifling, ephemeral melodies, with carelessly arranged harmonies.

☞ The price of the book is exceedingly low, placing it within the reach of every church.

THE CHAPEL HYMN BOOK,

WITH TUNES.

AN ABRIDGED work from THE CHURCH HYMN BOOK. By Rev. EDWIN F. HATFIELD, D. D., with all the OLD TUNES AND FAMILIAR HARMONIES. For the use of Chapels, Lecture Rooms, Social Meetings, Mission Churches, and Congregations desiring a smaller book than the original. It contains 752 Hymns 263 Tunes, several Chants, and a most thorough and complete Index. Printed and bound in the most handsome style, and very convenient and attractive in size.

☞ Full descriptive circulars with prices and a large number of representative testimonials will be sent on application; as also, to be returned if not adopted, a sample copy to pastors for examination. Address

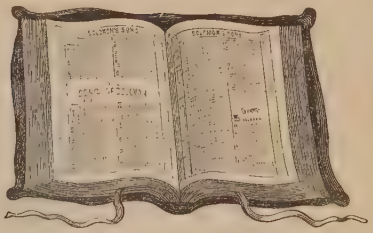
"THE GEM OF BIBLES"

IS

The "Oxford"

Teachers'



Bible.

IT IS

THE STRONGEST, THE BEST, THE CHEAPEST.

READ THIS:

The SUNDAY SCHOOL TIMES of Nov. 1, 1879, says:

"The demand for good editions of the Bible, with fitting helps to its study, is on the "increase among Sunday-school teachers, and the effort to meet this demand promotes a "healthful competition among publishing houses. It has not been easy at all times to decide "in favor of any one edition above all others; hence such a request as the following, from "a correspondent in Tennessee, could not have been answered by us with positiveness until "a few months ago. He says:—

"'I desire you to tell me which is the best Teachers' Bible among the kinds advertised. "I want the best Bible for teaching.'

"We have no hesitation in saying that, all things considered, the OXFORD TEACHERS' "BIBLES are better for the Sunday-school teacher than any other with which we are familiar. "THOMAS NELSON & SONS, 42 Bleecker Street, New York, are the American agents. They "can be addressed for circulars giving a description of the various sizes and styles of binding, "ranging from $1.50 to $14. Possibly some other publishing house will yet improve on "these. If so, we shall be prompt to chronicle the fact."

The NORTHWESTERN ADVOCATE says:

"The OXFORD PRESS, represented in this country by THOMAS NELSON & SONS, is now publishing a series of six fac-simile Bibles, that is, six editions printed in different sized type and page, each page exactly corresponding word for word in each edition, the text occupying 1,000 pages and the supplemental matter about 320 pages more. A brief description of the advantages of the OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLE will be acceptable. OXFORD BIBLES are printed from standing type, not from plates. The OXFORD PRESS cast their own types, make their own paper from rags only, and bind their books themselves. The manipulation of a genuine OXFORD BIBLE, both as to paper and binding, will satisfy the most minute scrutiny. The clearness of the printed page leaves nothing to be desired. As to the binding, the book may be doubled flat back, may be thrown down and even trampled upon, without a leaf starting, or it may be suspended by a single leaf without sustaining injury. The back of the book is so supple it cannot be broken; and in order to take the book to pieces, the leaves must be torn out separately. The paper itself possesses a toughness which cannot be surpassed, but the binding will, for durability, outlast the paper. Of the contents, the miscellaneous information is classified under thirty-four separate heads, arranged in a systematic and orderly manner for immediate use. The information is nearly all new or rewritten in such a way as to embrace the greatest amount of knowledge in the smallest compass. The most eminent scholars and professors of OXFORD UNIVERSITY have been employed on these articles, and they have been revised by the most eminent divines, so as to make the matter as perfect as possible, and acceptable to all."

The Rev. C. H. SPURGEON says:

"I can unreservedly recommend the OXFORD BIBLES FOR TEACHERS. They are as good as we can ever expect to see. The 'Helps' constitute a library of Scriptural information."

Hymn and Tune Books for Public Worship.

THE CHRISTIAN HYMNAL,

CONTAINING A NEW SELECTION OF

Hyms, Tunes and Chants for Use in Public Worship, and also Selections from the Psalter for Responsive Readings.

EDITED BY REV. MESSRS.

E. P. PARKER. N. J. BURTON. J. H. TWICHELL.

HARTFORD, CONN.

It is one of the choicest selections of hymns ever made. — The Chicago Advance.

The Christian Hymnal is a characteristic production, and one in every way creditable to its editors. The average character of the music and hymns is very high. — The Independent.

We unreservedly commend this volume to the attention of all those churches and individuals who can be in any way satisfied with a less bulky and more choice collection of music than is at present in common use. — Religious Herald, Hartford.

It is the best Congregational Hymnal we have seen. — Hartford Courant.

You certainly have the brighest jewels of the devotional hymns in your book. — Rev. Henry Hopkins, Westfield, Mass.

I have looked it through quite carefully and with much interest, and think you have been exceedingly successful in your selections. — Henry Wilson, Organist of Park Church, and formerly of Christ Church, Hartford.

The compilers seem to have kept nearly all that is valuable or suitable for Public Worship, in a surprisingly small collection. — B. P. Learned, Director of Music at Park Church, Norwich.

I have carefully examined "The Christian Hymnal," and will say emphatically that in my judgment it is the best collection of hymns and tunes published in this country. — Irving Emerson, Organist of Christ Church, Hartford.

CONGREGATIONAL PUBLISHING SOCIETY.

The managers of the CONGREGATIONAL PUBLISHING SOCIETY respectfully call attention to the following statements: —

1. The free dissemination of Christian literature is one of the most effective ways of converting the world to Christ. To issue the best literature and tempt readers by cheap prices, or outright gifts, publishing societies are needed.

2. Congregationalists ought to do their share towards the world's conversion through the press, as through the other ministries of the churches. The same sphere which our churches fill in life, our Publishing Society should fill in literature.

The vast preponderance of the teaching and activity of our churches has no denominational end or aim, but is in the broad field of general Christian teaching. The Publishing Society is Congregational to the same extent as the churches, and no more. Certain treatises of interest only to Christians of our Way have their place. The controlling work of the Society is to set forth as aptly and forcibly as may be, and scatter as widely that common evangelical literature which all Christians approve.

3. There is no danger of overdoing this beneficent work. With other societies "all at it, and always at it," we are still needed; our resources, our methods, our prayers are needed. We rejoice in what is well done by the Methodist Book Concern, by the Baptist and by the Presbyterian Boards, and by the union organizations. But we can manage this evangelistic work as economically and as judiciously as others can manage it for us. In addition to all they are doing through outside organizations, Congregationalists have a large field of their own to occupy.

4. CHARITABLE WORK. Missionaries, ministers, tract-distributors, Christian Associations, come to the Society for books and periodicals to give away where they will do the most good. To meet these increasing calls we need generous contributions. Whatever is contributed is honestly distributed to the full value in the best literature. No money is diverted for expenses. The colporteurs are unpaid volunteers. We ask of every church an annual collection; we ask general and large donations and legacies for this divine method of telling the good news.

5. A PUBLISHING FUND OF ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS is imperatively needed for the work now opening. The income of it could be used to-day to the greatest advantage of our common Christianity. The Society has never yet been endowed with a specific publishing fund. It earnestly solicits liberal gifts therefor.

6. ITS PERIODICALS AND PUBLICATIONS generally are believed to be as good of their kinds as can be procured anywhere. We bespeak for them the patronage of all Congregationalists, of churches, and Sunday schools.

7. AN EASY WAY TO EXTEND THE BENEFICENT WORK OF THE SOCIETY IS TO PATRONIZE IT. The Society is a book-seller. It is the agent that manages a co-operative bookstore, of which all the profits are for the general advantage of the churches. No individual has the slightest personal interest, or gains the least amount, whether many or few books are sold. The churches and Sunday schools are the ones who gain; the business is wholly in their interest, and for their profit. It is for them, easily if they will, to make it yield a large revenue for the common cause. By not a cent's additional cost, by simply allowing their own co-operative bookstore to reap the profit on the purchases they make somewhere to somebody's profit, Congregationalists may make their Publishing Society a mighty instrument for good. The bookstore furnishes not only its own publications, but those of all societies and publishers that may be called for: Books for theological libraries, for families, for churches and Sunday schools; whatever ministers, superintendents, teachers, private persons may desire. Those who for any reason prefer other publications to our own, may procure them through the bookstore, and so allow the profit to go to the common charity fund. It is no objection that the distance from Boston is great for many. Orders and parcels can be sent anywhere by mail or express at minimum cost. Where there is a will there is a way. Our Methodist friends, by patronizing their Book Concerns, out of the accumulation of small profits have endowed them with a working capital — some two millions of dollars — twenty times what we ask for.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY FOR 1880

WILL CONTAIN

"THE UNDISCOVERED COUNTRY,"

A Serial Story, by W. D. Howells, author of "The Lady of the Aroostook," which will run through six or more numbers. During the year will also appear Serial Stories, by Henry James, Jr., author of "The American," "Daisy Miller," etc.; T. B. Aldrich, author of "Prudence Palfrey," "Marjorie Daw," etc.

☞ These serial stories, by three of the most popular and distinguished of living American novelists, will make The Atlantic for 1880 peculiarly attractive.

The Short Stories of The Atlantic are generally conceded to be the best in magazine literature. During 1880 two or more first-class short stories will be given in each number, from such writers as H. H., Constance Fenimore Woolson, Rose Terry Cooke, Sarah O. Jewett, author of "Deephaven," Horace E. Scudder, W. H. Bishop, and others.

Industrial Topics in which everybody is interested will receive particular attention, and will be discussed by persons of special ability and knowledge of the subjects treated. The Author of "Certain Dangerous Tendencies in American Life," "Preaching," and other notable articles that have recently appeared in The Atlantic, will write regularly.

Political and Social Life at Washington will be the subject of a very interesting series of articles by a gentleman who has been familiarly acquainted with the leading men and the history of important and stirring events at the capital for the last thirty years

The Literary Features of The Atlantic, which have always been remarkable for their variety and excellence, will be even better than heretofore. Essays on distinguished authors and Reviews of important works and classes of works, as Biography, Novels, Poetry, Travels, Art Books, etc., as body articles will form a very interesting feature of the Magazine and give it especial value.

Living Questions in Politics, Education, Religion, Industry, or whatever the American Public is most interested in, will be discussed by persons eminently qualified to treat them thoroughly and so as to enlist the attention of thinking men and women.

The Famous Contributors whose names are so closely identified with The Atlantic,

LONGFELLOW, WHITTIER, HOLMES, LOWELL, MRS. STOWE, H. H., ROSE TERRY COOKE, MISS LARCOM, MISS PRESTON, MISS WOOLSON, MISS JEWETT, MRS. PIATT, WARNER, WARING, NORTON, STEDMAN, STODDARD, RICHARD GRANT WHITE, SCUDDER, MARK TWAIN, DEFOREST, BISHOP, and others, will write for the magazine; and new writers from all sections of the country will be added to the list.

Portrait of Dr. Holmes. A superb life-size portrait of Dr. Holmes has been made by Mr. J. E. Baker (the artist who made the Atlantic Portraits of Longfellow, Bryant, Whittier, and Lowell), and will be furnished to Atlantic subscribers for One Dollar.

ENLARGEMENT.

☞ Beginning with January, 1880, The Atlantic is printed with new and larger type and page; and the numbers have sixteen additional pages, making 144 or more pages to each number.

TERMS:

$4.00 a year, in advance, postage free; 35 cents a number. With superb life-size portrait of Holmes, Lowell, Whittier, Bryant, or Longfellow, $5.00; with two portraits, $6.00; with three portraits, $7.00; with four portraits, $8.00; with all five portraits, $9.00.

Remittances should be made by money-order, draft or registered letter, to

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE

Jan. 1, 1880, THE LIVING AGE entered upon its 144th Volume, admittedly unrivalled and continuously successful. A weekly magazine, it gives more than

THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND

Double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Serial and Short Stories, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

It is therefore invaluable to every American reader, as the only satisfactorily fresh and COMPLETE compilation of an indispensable current literature, — indispensable because it embraces the productions of the

ABLEST LIVING WRITERS

In all branches of Literature, Science, Politics, and Art.

"It covers the whole field of literature, and covers it completely, thoroughly and impartially." — TIMES, Cincinnati.

"It affords the best, the cheapest and most convenient means of keeping abreast with the progress of thought in all its phases." — NORTH AMERICAN, Philadelphia.

"Gives the best of all at the price of one." — NEW YORK INDEPENDENT.

"It is, by all odds, the best eclectic published." — SOUTHERN CHURCHMAN, Richmond.

"It so fully supplies the wants of the reading public that through its pages alone it is possible to be as thoroughly well informed in current literature as by the perusal of a long list of monthlies." — PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER.

"To read it weekly is a liberal education." — ZION'S HERALD, Boston.

"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics and science of the day." — THE METHODIST, New York.

"There is no other way of procuring the same amount of excellent literature for anything like the same price." — BOSTON ADVERTISER.

"It is INDISPENSABLE TO EVERY ONE who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world." — BOSTON POST.

"The prince among magazines." — NEW YORK OBSERVER.

"The best literature of the day." — NEW YORK TIMES.

THE LIVING AGE is published weekly at $8.00 a year, free of postage; or for $10 50 THE LIVING AGE and any one of the American $4 Monthlies (or Harper's Weekly or Bazar) will be sent for a year, both postpaid; or, for $9.50 THE LIVING AGE and the St. Nicholas, or Appleton's Journal.

EXTRA OFFER FOR 1880.

To all new subscribers for 1880 will be sent gratis six numbers of 1879 which contain, besides other interesting matter, the first chapters of two new serial stories recently begun in THE LIVING AGE from advance sheets, viz.: "HE WHO WILL NOT WHEN HE MAY," by MRS. OLIPHANT, and "ADAM AND EVE," by the author of those remarkably attractive stories, "Dorothy Fox" and "Hero Carthew." Address,

LITTELL & CO., Boston.

"Without question the best book for its purpose that has as yet been published."

It has given unqualified satisfaction to all who have used it.

65 CENTS A COPY FOR INTRODUCTION.

A NEW HYMN AND TUNE BOOK

FOR THE

PRAYER-MEETING AND THE CHURCH.

In May, 1874, we published The Hymns and Songs of Praise, edited by the Rev. Drs. ROSWELL D. HITCHCOCK, ZACHARY EDDY, and PHILIP SCHAFF, containing more than 1,400 Hymns and 450 Tunes and Chants, which at once took rank as the most complete and satisfactory Church Hymn and Tune Book ever issued.

The plan of the editors embraced a companion volume, for use in the Chapel, and we have published

Hymns and Songs for Social and Sabbath Worship,

Containing nearly 300 pages, with 660 Hymns and 300 Tunes and Chants.

While this collection of Hymns and Tunes has been made primarily to meet the requirements of the Vestry and the PRAYER-MEETING, special reference has been had to that large number of SMALL CHURCHES and Chapels which desire a Hymn and Tune Book, comprehensive in plan and execution, and at the same time compact in form and moderate in price. The aim of the editors of the HYMNS AND SONGS has been to make this book ample for all the wants of Sabbath Worship. The careful and laborious editing which characterizes the large book has been carried into this.

NEW & VALUABLE PUBLICATIONS.

Studies of the Old Testament.

By Prof. AUSTIN PHELPS. A very valuable and practical book. A suitable companion for that popular work by the same author, "The Still Hour." Price, $1.40.

The Sunday School Times says: "The articles contained in this volume are rich in thought, models in style, and overflowing with the spirit of Christian tenderness and devotion."

The Light: Is It Waning?

Why? How Much? And What Shall We Do? Being the Fletcher Prize Essay for 1879. A very suggestive book on an important subject. Price, $1.00.

It is a startling, powerful book, the causes of the decline of spirituality in the churches bein set forth with remarkable vigor and boldness. It is seldom that we have read a more rousing, earnest, practical volume.—Daily Traveller.

A book for every clergyman and thoughtful person.

The Soul Here and Hereafter.

By CHARLES M. MEAD, Professor in Andover Theological Seminary. Price, $1.50.

The Congregationalist, in an extended notice of this volume, says: "It is a timely book, and its subject will gain for it what its genuine value will keep,—the attention of thoughtful persons. Prof. Mead has earned the gratitude of all lovers of Bible truth for having taken down the old sword and wielded it so valiantly and so successfully in the fight which now is."

Hubbell's New and Improved Superintendent's Record Book.

The most compact, the cheapest and best published. Only 60 cents.

This is just what it professes to be, a new and improved Record Book. It is multum in parvo, compact, simple, and has a place for every needed item for superintendent or secretary, and in less space and more convenient form than in any other we have seen. It is not easy to see how any Record Book can be made superior to this.

This Publishing Society also have for sale Hubbell's Improved Class Card, in envelopes, $2.00 per hundred; and Hubbell's Library Cards, 75 cents per hundred; or in lots of five hundred, 50 cents per hundred.—Blackboard and Crayon.

Mission Songs.

With music adapted to all missionary gatherings, supplying a need long felt by pastors and all lovers of missions. 20 cents each, or $15.00 per hundred.

Lives of the Leaders of Our Church Universal.

Edited by Dr. FERDINAND PIPER, Germany, and Dr. HENRY MCCRACKEN of America. 3 vols. 8vo. 873 pages. A very valuable and readable work. $1.50 per volume.

In Press: Sabbath Essays.

Pilgrim Quarterly (new). Edited by Rev. D. N. BEACH, who has had valuable experience in this department. Equal to the best. Price, per year, 20 cents.

Special attention is called to our children's paper,

The Well Spring and Missionary Echoes,

Now in its thirty-sixth volume. This paper, under its present editorial management, has acquired a reputation second to none as a Sunday-school paper. One valuable feature is its missionary character. The last page is edited by the Woman's Board of Missions and is filled with missionary incidents calculated to awaken an interest among children and youth in the cause of missions.

The RELIGIOUS HERALD was established in 1843 in the interests of Congregationalism. Its aim has been to render itself, in its discussion of topics which relate to the religious, moral and practical concerns of man, in its selections, in its summary of religious and general intelligence, acceptable and profitable as a family and religious newspaper. During the thirty-seven years of its existence it has won to itself a large and stable constituency of writers and readers.

The HERALD is an admirable paper, and never so good as now.
CHARLES N. LYON.

I regard it as much a religious duty to subscribe for my RELIGIOUS HERALD as I do to go to church on Sunday. WILLIAM W. TURNER.

The RELIGIOUS HERALD contains every week, apart from other excellent matter, things of local interest, not to be found elsewhere, interesting to the pastors and members of our churches, and there can be no doubt that the wider circulation of the HERALD would very sensibly promote the prosperity, not so much of our denomination, as the general cause of evangelical religion in the good old State of Connecticut. T. L. SHIPMAN.

REV. I. P. WARREN, in the Christian Mirror, Nov. 22, very kindly says: We know of no religious journal which has made more advancement in everything that constitutes a good family paper than the RELIGIOUS HERALD of Hartford, Conn. We subscribed for its very first number thirty-seven years ago, and have been familiar with it ever since. Though having, like all our State papers, to contend against the oppressive rivalry of the so-called "metropolitan" journals of New York and Boston, it has held on its way, growing ever in favor, and is now recognized as one of the valuable auxiliaries of the churches of the State. We hope it has a patronage equal to its merits.

THE RELIGIOUS HERALD is coming into a closer relation of helpfulness to the General Conference and its constituent bodies, is growing in worth and usefulness, and should be taken in all our parishes and seen every week by the ministers who are serving our churches.

TO ADVERTISERS. — The HERALD possesses a character and influence very valuable as an advertising medium.

DATE DUE

THE ADVANCE.

1880.

"Reaching forth unto those things which are before."

1. The ADVANCE is a religious journal.

2. It is loyal to "historic Congregationalism" up to date, and equally so to the Congregationalism that is and is to be.

3. It is a news-paper. It aims to gather and summarize the news, sifting out and noting just the things that have the most significance.

4. It is aggressive. It does not stick in ruts. It hates cant and abhors cowardice.

5. The ADVANCE is a constantly mediating and co-ordinating agency for all the interests which specially concern the churches, binding all the "causes," missionary and others, into one cause, so as to bring to bear the momentum of the total Christian movement of the time in aid of every specific Christian endeavor.

6. It purposes to be as helpful as possible to all pastors.

7. It keeps in view all the wants of the family, and with a warm sympathy for both parents and children sincerely endeavors to make itself welcome in every home.

TERMS.—Single subscribers, $3 per year, in advance. To ministers and missionaries, $2.20.

CHURCH CLUBS.—If the pastor, or any officer or member of a church, is interested to attempt the increase of our subscription list, some advantages are offered, both to new and old, by our "Church Club" rate, the particulars of which will be sent on application.
